

About Korea

InstaPundit calls this “a memorable Korean fiscing”. We agree: we're going to remember it. (But watch out for the formatting which, on our browser, goes wrong near the end and fails to distinguish the fisker from the fished. Still, you're unlikely to be confused: by that point you won't need formatting clues to distinguish true from false!)

Meanwhile, rumour has it that, in regard to North Korea's weapons of mass destruction, North Korea is about to drop its demand for the US to address the problem unilaterally, and is caving in to the American plan for multilateral talks. By the way, the villepinists are tied in all sorts of knots over this issue: among other things, they'd love to side with North Korea against American unilateralism. But then, evil dictators never do follow the script that villepinists fondly imagine for them.
